

Revenue Information Bulletin No. 13-007

January 17, 2013

Administrative

Effective June 30, 2013, the Louisiana Department of Revenue will phase-out the Audit Protest Bureau (“APB”). The decision to discontinue this service was difficult, but fiscally responsible. It is a continuation of a strategic series of decisions that will result in greater efficiency across the agency. In the coming months the APB staff will continue to work on its current inventory. As of Friday, January 18, 2013, no new protests will be accepted by APB. The audit protest process will once again be conducted by the Department’s Field Audit Service Division.
